

Copa90 Internship Opportunities For Graduates Programs 2025

Description

Copa90 is excited to offer an immersive internship experience for passionate individuals eager to dive into the world of football media. As an intern with Copa90, you'll have the opportunity to work alongside industry professionals, contribute to compelling content, and engage with a global community of football enthusiasts. This internship is perfect for those who are not only fans of the beautiful game but are also interested in storytelling, digital media, and creative production.

Responsibilities

- Assist in the creation and editing of multimedia content for Copa90's platforms, including video, social media, and written articles.
- Support the production team in planning and executing projects, ensuring that all deliverables meet Copa90's standards.
- Conduct research on current football trends and stories to contribute fresh ideas for new content.
- Engage with Copa90's online community, responding to comments and feedback to foster a vibrant and interactive environment.
- Collaborate with various departments to streamline content creation processes and optimize outreach strategies.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in or recently graduated from a degree program in media, communications, journalism, or a related field.
- Demonstrable passion for football and a deep understanding of its cultural impact.
- Strong communication skills and the ability to work collaboratively in a team-oriented environment.
- Familiarity with digital media tools and platforms such as Adobe Creative Suite, social media analytics, and content management systems.

Job Benefits

- Gain hands-on experience in a fast-paced, creative media environment.
- Opportunity to build a professional network with industry leaders and influencers.
- Access to exclusive Copa90 events and behind-the-scenes content production.
- Flexible working hours to accommodate academic commitments.
- A dynamic and inclusive workplace culture that values diversity and creativity.

Experience

- Prior experience in content creation, whether through past internships, personal projects, or freelance work, is highly desirable.
- Experience with video editing, graphic design, or storytelling in a digital context will be advantageous.
