Kerrang International Internship Program 2025

Description

Explore a dynamic career path in music journalism with the Kerrang Internship—a unique opportunity to dive into the heart of the music industry. Join a team that's passionate about alternative music and storytelling, and gain unparalleled experience at one of the world's leading music magazines.

The Kerrang Internship offers aspiring journalists the chance to work alongside experienced editors and writers, contributing to various aspects of the magazine. Interns will get hands-on experience in creating captivating content, from in-depth articles to engaging online features, while immersing themselves in the vibrant world of music journalism.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities

- Assist in researching and writing articles for both print and digital platforms.
- Participate in brainstorming sessions and editorial meetings.
- Support the editorial team with fact-checking and content editing.
- Help manage social media accounts by crafting posts and engaging with readers.
- Attend concerts, interviews, and other music events as a representative of Kerrang.

Qualifications

- Currently pursuing or recently completed a degree in Journalism, Communications, or a related field.
- Strong writing and editing skills with a keen eye for detail.
- A genuine passion for music, especially rock and alternative genres.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team in a fast-paced environment.

Job Benefits

- Gain valuable experience working with a leading music publication.
- Access to exclusive music events and interviews.
- Opportunities to build a portfolio with published works.
- Networking opportunities with industry professionals.
- Mentorship from seasoned editors and writers.

Experience

While prior experience in journalism or media is beneficial, it is not a strict requirement. What matters most is a deep enthusiasm for music and a strong desire to learn and grow within the industry.
