UNESCO Internship and Volunteers Program

Description

The UNESCO internship offers a dynamic environment where interns can gain hands-on experience in various projects aligned with UNESCO's goals. Interns are placed in different sectors such as Education, Natural Sciences, Social and Human Sciences, Culture, Communication, and Information. The internship aims to enhance personal and professional skills while fostering a deeper understanding of UNESCO's core values and objectives.

Responsibilities

Interns at UNESCO are entrusted with a range of responsibilities designed to provide thorough exposure to the organization's workings. These include:

- Assisting in the preparation of program documentation and reports.
- Conducting research and analysis to support ongoing projects.
- Participating in team meetings and contributing to brainstorming sessions.
- Supporting the organization of events, workshops, and conferences.
- Engaging in outreach activities and communication strategies.

Qualifications

To be eligible for the UNESCO internship, candidates must meet the following qualifications:

- Be currently enrolled in a graduate or postgraduate program (Master's or PhD) or have recently graduated.
- Possess excellent written and verbal communication skills in one of UNESCO's working languages (English or French).
- Demonstrate a strong interest in international development and UNESCO's mission.
- Exhibit strong analytical and research skills.

Job Benefits

Interning at UNESCO provides numerous benefits beyond professional development, including:

- Opportunity to work in a multicultural and diverse environment.
- Access to a global network of professionals and experts.
- Insight into international policy-making and project management.
- Enhanced cultural understanding and language skills.
- Potential stepping stone to future career opportunities within international organizations.

Experience

While prior professional experience is not a strict requirement, having a background in fields related to UNESCO's mission such as education, social sciences, environmental studies, or cultural management is advantageous. Experience in research or project management can also enhance a candidate's application.
